It is with great pleasure that the UCI WorldTour Team Bahrain Victorious once again stands up in support of the A.s.d Emozione in the partnership scouting project, linked to the Trofeo Emozione. As has been successfully done in previous editions, the winner of the race will live an unforgettable educational experience by participating in an official team "training camp". Vladimir Miholjevic, Performance Manager of Team Bahrain Victorious: "We are happy to support activities such as this collaboration with the Trofeo Emozione, as we care about the growth of young talents, who could potentially become champions in the future. But above all, the goal that excites us with these initiatives is to bring young riders closer to the world of professional cycling. As a team we are always pleased to support projects that contribute to helping the youth categories and as far as the Trofeo Emozione is concerned, the winners have experienced unforgettable moments with our team and this represents a great satisfaction for us. We can't wait to meet the next winner and welcome him to one of our training camps."
